A MUST SEE

This has to be one of the best nostalgia eMails I've ever received. If you're too young, enjoy a good laugh then send on to your parents. If not, then bask in the warm memories. This is exactly what we looked at in these years and oh life was so sweet back then. Note the price of the TV guide.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE World War II MOVIE STARS?

Some of you younger guys probably have not even heard of these 'old movie stars'... some contrast between these men and the anti-American movie stars of today.

Hope you find this as informative and interesting as I did.

In contrast to the ideals, opinions and feelings of today's "Hollywonk", the real actors of yesteryear loved the United States.

They had both class and integrity. With the advent of World War II many of our actors went to fight rather than stand and rant against this country we all love.

They gave up their wealth, position and fame to become service men & women, many as simple "enlisted men".

This page lists but a few, but from this group of only 18 men came over 70 medals in honor of their valor, including Bronze Stars, Silver Stars, Distinguish Service Cross', Purple Hearts and one Congressional Medal of Honor.

So remember; while many of the "Entertainers of 2005 - 2008" were all over the news media, here's a reminder to people of what the "Entertainers of 1943" were doing (66 years ago).

Most of these brave men have since passed on.

"Real Hollywood Heroes"

Alec Guinness (Star Wars) operated a British Royal Navy landing craft on D-Day.

James Doohan ("Scotty" on Star Trek) landed in Normandy with the U. S. Army on D-Day.

Donald Pleasance (The Great Escape) really was an R. A. F. pilot who was shot down, held prisoner and tortured by the Germans.

David Niven was a Sandhurst graduate and Lt. Colonel of the British Commandos in Normandy.

James Stewart entered the Army Air Force as a private and worked his way to the rank of Colonel. During World War II, Stewart served as a bomber pilot, his service record crediting him with leading more than 20 missions over Germany, and taking part in hundreds of air strikes during his tour of duty. Stewart earned the Air Medal, the Distinguished Flying Cross, France's Croix de Guerre, and 7 Battle Stars during World War II. In peacetime, Stewart continued to be an active member of the Air Force as a reservist, reaching the rank of Brigadier General before retiring in the late 1950s.

Clark Gable was a mega-movie star when war broke out, (Gone With The Wind).

Although he was beyond the draft age at the time the U.S. entered World War II, Clark Gable, then 41, enlisted as a private in the Army Air Force on Aug. 12, 1942.

He attended the Officer Candidate School in Miami Beach, Fla. and graduated as a second lieutenant on Oct. 28, 1942.

Next he attended aerial gunnery school and in Feb. 1943 was assigned to the 351st Bomb Group at Polebrook, England where he flew operational missions over Europe in B-17 bombers.

Capt. Gable returned to the U.S. in Oct. 1943 and was relieved from active duty as a major on Jun. 12, 1944 at his own request, since he was over-age for combat.

Charlton Heston served in the Army Air Corps on B-25s.

Ernest Borgnine was a U. S. Navy Gunners Mate from 1935 to 1945.
(Maybe that's why he starred in "McHale's Navy")

Charles Durning was a U. S. Army Ranger at Normandy earning a Silver Star and awarded the Purple Heart.

Charles Bronson was a tail gunner on B-29 bombers in the 20th Army Air Force out of Guam, Tinian, and Saipan.

George C. Scott was a decorated U. S. Marine.

Eddie Albert (Green Acres TV) was awarded a Bronze Star for his heroic action as a U. S. Naval officer aiding Marines at the horrific battle on the Pacific island of Tarawa in November 1943.

Brian Keith served as a U.S. Marine rear gunner in several actions against the Japanese on Rabaul in the Pacific.

Lee Marvin was a U.S. Marine on Saipan during the Marianas campaign when he was wounded. He was awarded the Purple Heart.

In 1942, John Russell enlisted in the Marine Corps. He received a battlefield commission, was wounded and highly decorated for valor at Guadalcanal

Robert Ryan was a U. S. Marine who served with the O.S.S. in Yugoslavia. The O.S.S. was the forerunner of the C.I.A.

Tyrone Power (an established movie star when Pearl Harbor was bombed) joined the U.S. Marines. He served as a pilot flying supplies into, and wounded Marines out of, Iwo Jima and Okinawa .

Audie Murphy – Only a 5' 5-1/2" tall, 110 pound guy from Texas, he enlisted at age 16. He starred in 39 movies after the war.

Most Decorated Serviceman of WW II, he earned 39 Medals:

The Medal of Honor, Distinguished Service Cross, 2 Silver Star Medals, Legion of Merit, 2 Bronze Star Medals (with "V" for Valor), 2 Purple Hearts, U.S. Army Outstanding Civilian Service Medal, Good Conduct Medal, 2 Distinguished Unit Emblems, American Campaign Medal, European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal (with One Silver Star, Four Bronze Service Stars [representing nine campaigns], One Bronze Arrowhead [representing assault landing at Sicily & Southern France]), World War II Victory Medal, Army of Occupation Medal (with Germany Clasp), Armed Forces Reserve Medal, Combat Infantry Badge, Marksman Badge (with Rifle Bar), Expert Badge (with Bayonet Bar), French Fourragere (in Colors of the Croix de Guerre), French Legion of Honor (Grade of Chevalier), French Croix de Guerre (with Silver Star), French Croix de Guerre (with Palm), Medal of Liberated France, and the Belgian Croix de Guerre (with 1940 Palm).

So how do you feel the real heroes of the silver screen acted when compared to the hollywonks of the 2000s who spew out anti-American drivel as they bite the hand that feeds them?

Can you imagine these stars of yesteryear saying they hate our flag, making anti-war speeches, marching in anti-American parades and saying they hate our President?

I thought not, neither did I!

It is the soldier,
not the President,
who gives us democracy,

It is the soldier,
not the Congress,
who takes care of us.

It is the soldier,
not the Reporter,
who has given us Freedom of Press.

It is the soldier,
not the Poet,
who has given us Freedom of Speech.

It is the soldier,
not the campus Organizer, who has given us the Freedom to Demonstrate.

It is the soldier,
who salutes the flag,
who serves beneath the flag,
and whose coffin is draped by the flag,
that allows the protester to burn the flag.

Father Dennis O'Brien
U.S. Marine Corp. Chaplain

To our men and women in uniform...

past, present
and future

God bless you...
and thank you.

And God Bless America

on.
If you enjoyed this bit of history, please pass it
